

AZILUM

The broad plain which can be seen from this point was the site, 1793-1803, of the French refugee colony. The Great House, built for Marie Antoinette and her son, was there and an entire village founded.

PENNSYLVANIA HISTORICAL AND MUSEUM COMMISSION