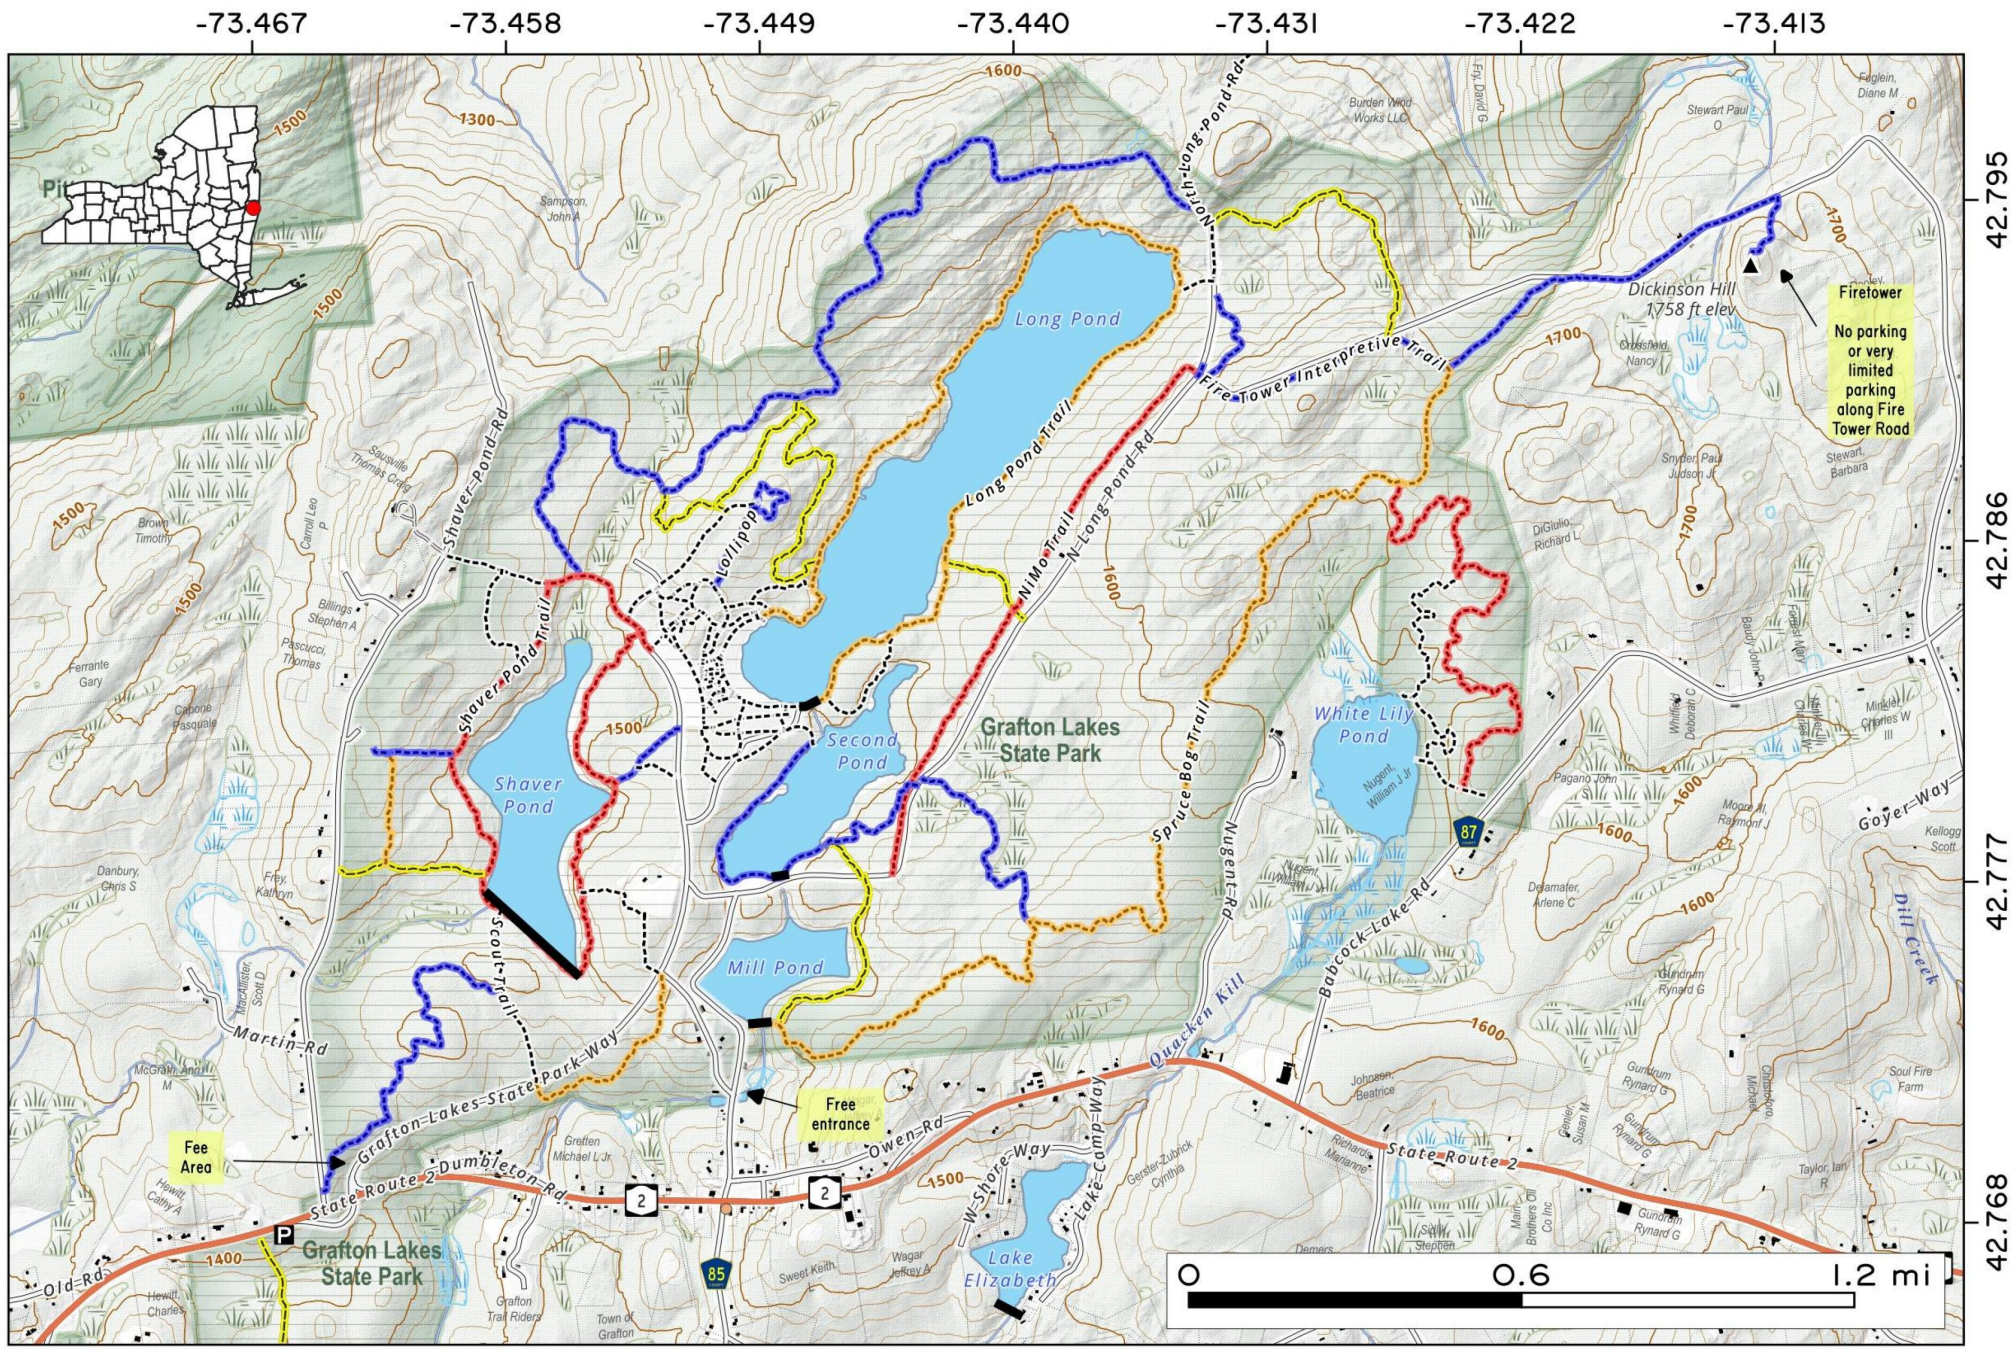
Located on the Rensselaer Plateau, Grafton Lakes State Park offers year-round recreation across 2,500 acres and six ponds. A large beach on Long Pond is popular for summer swimming, while over 25 miles of trails accommodate hiking, biking, fishing, and winter sports like snowmobiling and cross-country skiing.


Map created by Andy Arthur on 11/14/2025 in QGIS 3.44.4-Solothurn. Contains NYS GIS and DEC data with additional campsites added by Andy. More maps at andyarthur.org.