

The SUNY ESF Adirondack Interpretive Center offers several nature trails that connect to Santanoni Preserve. Rich Lake Trail offers mountain views and flows into the 1.6-mile Peninsula Trail loop, which features rolling terrain through old-growth hemlocks along the water. Sage Memorial Trail skirts the shoreline of Belden Lake, crossing wetlands via a boardwalk. Santanoni Preserve Connector is a 0.5-mile trail branches from the Sage loop to the preserve headquarters.

The Camp Santanoni-Lake Harris Campground Connector Trail is a scenic, 1.5-mile trail that travels through a hardwood forest along the northern shore of Harris Lake. It links the Lake Harris State Campground directly to the Gate Lodge complex at the Camp Santanoni Historic Area. Generally flat and easy, this trail is ideal for hiking, fishing, and camping access. Note that crossing Roaring Brook halfway can be difficult during high water levels.
